May 6

Cris Crisler

Cris started square dancing in 1962, moved to San Antonio in 1965, and started calling in 1972. He is past chairman of the Styling Committee of CALLERLAB and a member of the Texas State Callers' Association. Cris and his wonderful wife, Allene, have been married for 57 years, and they have 3 great kids, 6 wonderful grandkids, and 7 incredible great grandkids, and ... according to Cris, "all of them are smarter and better lookin' than me." Well, Cris, you said it, not me! Cris has been the Gonzales Come 'N Take It Square Dance Club caller since 2001. "I enjoy calling now more than ever..." He calls mainstream and plus to those golden square dance oldies, so ... listen up, folks, and be prepared to dance your socks off.

Yep, you can ... "fill my boots up with sand, put a mike in my hand, stand me up by my Hilton when I die!"
